ABOUT OTTUMWA

There is lots to do in the Ottumwa area... the American Gothic House, an antique airfield and museum, miles of trails for biking and walking, acres of park space, more disc golf courses than you could play in one day, historical museums depicting Wapello County's beginnings and Native American heritage, authentic Hispanic culture, art galleries, concert venues, shopping, and more!

Ottumwa is home to The Beach Ottumwa, a beautiful indoor / outdoor waterpark. The facility encompasses 13 acres and over a million gallons of safe family fun.

Being in rural Iowa doesn't mean you are separated from the rest of the US! Amtrak, the national passenger rail system, provides service to the Ottumwa Amtrak Station operating its California Zephyr daily in both directions between Chicago, Illinois and Emeryville, California which is near San Francisco.
