ABOUT ELIZABETHTOWN

Welcome to Elizabethtown. Or as we locals like to call it... Etown. Around here, the E stands for "E"verything is "E"asy. Restaurants, lodging and all of Kentucky's best-known attractions are close and convenient.

From the birthplace of Lincoln to the birthplace of bourbon, from the world's largest cave system to world-famous Fort Knox, when you live in Elizabethtown, you'll discover a new surprise everywhere you look.

Within an hour drive of Elizabethtown is an abundance of activities whether you are single, married or have a family. These activities include numerous historical sites, including Abraham Lincoln's childhood home, Mammoth Cave National Park, Bernheim Arboretum and Research Forest, Historic State Theater, Jim Beam Distillery and many more. Elizabethtown is also a short drive to Louisville.
