ABOUT HARRISON / BATESVILLE

The City of Harrison is uniquely located on the border of Ohio and Indiana in western Hamilton County. Boasting an unprecedented population growth of seven percent annually for the past three years, the City is home to almost 10,000 residents.

Batesville is in the heart of southeastern Indiana, within a short drive of numerous metropolitan areas. Located on I-74, it is on the direct path between Cincinnati, Ohio and Indianapolis, Indiana, an area rich in scenic beauty and Hoosier hospitality. Batesville itself combines the prosperity of economic growth through industry with small-town charm and has grown to a community of 6,500 friendly, family-oriented, and forward-thinking citizens.

If small-town life with big-city amenities within driving distance sounds like your kind of life, this opportunity may be for you!
