ABOUT ROGERS

The City of Rogers prides itself in being a growing community with a small town feel. The population is forecasted to grow to approximately 18,400, by the year 2030, according to the Metropolitan Council.

Rogers is also conveniently located 25 miles from downtown Minneapolis where the options for food and entertainment are endless. From the Mall of America to Minnehaha Park and the Minneapolis Institute of Art to five-star dining and one-of-a-kind restaurants there is so much to see and do.

You can choose the type of lifestyle you would like to live - small-town charm of Rogers or bustling action in Minneapolis.
