ABOUT EAST LANSING

The communities of Central Michigan are economically diverse, based in the healthcare, information technology, automotive, aviation, and consumer goods manufacturing industries. It is home to nationally ranked and recognized academic, residential college Michigan State University (MSU). Central Michigan is also home to most of the area's premier clinical and research institutions, which is transforming it into a world-class healthcare destination.

Golf courses offer diversity ranging from hushed fairways carved out of dense forests to sweeping vistas of pristine lakes and rivers. There are trails for everyone, offering opportunities for biking, equestrian, off-road, snowmobiling, or cross country skiing and Michigan has more ski areas than any other state.
